SUPPORT THE NEXT GENERATION OF MUSICIANS

The Mona Shores Orchestra Parent Association makes it possible for the Mona Shores Orchestra Program to realize the extraordinary. The generosity of parents, volunteers, and donors helps the orchestra program cover the gap between school funding and all of the demands of being a world-class orchestra.

The Mona Shores Orchestra Parent Association depends upon your goodwill. To that end, there are several ways to contribute including individual donations to the association's general fund, directly or through the United Way, a donation to the Mona Shores Orchestra Edquist Memorial Fund, and Concert Program Advertising.

To make a donation, please use the attached form or visit the MSOPA table at Mona Shores Orchestra performances. Mona Shores Orchestra Association is a 501 C(3) tax-exempt organization and donations are tax deductible as allowed by law. Donations to the Edquist Memorial Fund are eligible for a Michigan Tax Credit for Community Foundations.

MONA SHORES ORCHESTRA EDQUIST MEMORIAL FUND

This fund was created with an initial gift to the MSOPA from John and Ann Augustin as a memorial to Ann's parents, Carl and Rita Edquist of Cedarburg, Wisconsin. The Augustin family continues their support of the Mona Shores Orchestra program that began with their children Timothy Augustin (2002 graduate) and Amy Augustin (2004 graduate). The Edquist Memorial Fund provides a college scholarship to a graduating Mona Shores orchestra student.
